

~~SECRET~~

Attachment

Suggested Changes in the Training Courses for CT's

A. Introduction to Intelligence

1. Satisfactory as is at two weeks, but possibly could be shortened if combined into an integrated course.

B. International Communism

1. Could be shortened to two weeks, similar to the course given all new non-CT professional employees.

C. Intelligence Techniques

1. Reduce to two weeks by eliminating written and oral exercises.
2. Reduce map reading from four hours to one.
3. Reduce the eight hours devoted to preparation of economic memorandum exercise. (But some of this time should be devoted to the new Office of Strategic Research.)
4. Reduce the eight hours devoted to the use of the NIS.
5. Reduce the eight hours devoted to locating possible missile sites.
6. Reduce the five hours spent on the [REDACTED] exercise.
7. Reduce the sixteen hours spent on photo interpretation.
8. Eliminate the twenty-six hours spent on the final report and briefing.

D. Operations Familiarization

1. Reduce the thirteen hours on [REDACTED]
2. Reduce the six hours devoted [REDACTED]

25X1B
25X1B

25X1A

25X1A

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

25X1A

25X1A

3. [REDACTED] (six hours) may be too long. (Isn't there a more recent case [REDACTED])

25X1A

4. [REDACTED] of three hours may be a little long.

25X1A

5. Eight hours devoted to [REDACTED] seems too long.

25X1A

25X1A

6. Thirteen hours devoted to [REDACTED] is too long.

25X1A

7. Reduce considerably the nineteen hours on [REDACTED]

25X1A

25X1A

8. Eliminate the two hours on [REDACTED]

E. Intelligence Production Course

1. Eliminate the three weeks devoted to the research paper.